HARVARD CLUB OF SWEDEN

NOMINATING COMMITTEE'S PROPOSAL FOR 2014

The Nominating Committee is pleased to propose the following candidates for Board members, Deputy Board members, Auditor and members of Nominating Committee, to be elected at the Annual Meeting, May 15th, 2014. Club Officers that are elected until 2015 Annual Meeting are included in the list for a full overview (their names are in italics)

The Board

(Excerpt from the by-laws)
§ 6 Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the Club shall consist of a President, three to nine regular Board members and at most five deputy Board members. The Board itself shall appoint a Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and remaining positions deemed necessary by the Board. In the event a Board member is prevented from serving, a deputy Board member takes his or her place on that occasion. In the case the President must step down from his/her duty prior to the expiration of the term, the Vice President takes over the position until the following Annual Meeting. In the event that the Vice President would also have to step down prior to the expiration of his/her term, an Extraordinary Meeting would take place to elect a new President until the following Annual Meeting. In the event a regular member of the Board steps down from the Board prior to the expiration of the term, a deputy Board member would assume the position vacated.

Presentation of Club Officers – Existing and Proposed

Mats Segerström

Mats received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Harvard College in 1980, with a major in Psychology and Social Relations. He is a founding partner of Place Consulting, a dedicated team of senior-level advisers focused on making Places — our towns, cities, and regions — thrive by developing local and regional business opportunities that make places work. Returning to Cambridge for my 25th reunion, together with my wife and three children, was extremely memorable. Seeing Harvard and Cambridge in festive guise made a great impression, in addition to all the good memories from the past that were brought to life.

Erik Mårild

Erik is an LLM '11 graduate of Harvard Law School currently practicing international arbitration with the Dispute Resolution Group of Mannheimer Swartling. One Erik's best memories from Harvard was the parties and the good atmosphere of the Game weekend 2010 which was completed with Harvard beating Yale in the Ivy League football game!

Gunilla Isaksson

Gunilla is one of the co-founders of the Club and started out as its Vice President. She served as President of the Club between October 2008 and April 2012. Gunilla is an LL.M from Harvard Law School and is currently Deputy Director at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, working mainly with Human Rights. She is one of the webmasters of the current website and also serves on the Social Committee.

Ingrid Hummingson

Ingrid has studied both at Harvard College and at the Graduate School of Arts Sciences. She has recently graduated from the Karolinska Institute, where she studied to become a Medical Doctor. Ingrid has been Event Manager since 2008 and has served on the Board since 2009.

Graham Barnes

Graham graduated from the Harvard Divinity School and later learned the practice of psychotherapy from Robert Goulding and Mary McClure Goulding at the Western Institute for Group and Family Therapy in California. He is also deeply engaged in cybernetics, which he learned from Gordon Pask in London. Graham has served on the Board since 2008.

Hugh Beach

Hugh graduated from Harvard College and is Professor of Ethnology at Uppsala University. Hugh has served on the Board since 2009 and is currently engaged in, inter alia, the Membership Committee.

Aline Reichenberg Gustafsson

Aline is an MBA '07 graduate of Harvard Business School. She is the president of HBS Club of Sweden.

Patrik Johansson - International Liaison Officer

Patrik joined the Club as its first member after it was founded in May 2007, and he has since been a Club volunteer. He joined the Board in 2011. Patrik is a board member of Harvard Alumni Association.

Gunilla (“Gwen”) Ramell – Chief Club Editor

Gwen is an AM '74 graduate of the Graduate School of Arts & Sciences (GSAS) in Government and currently runs her own firm specializing in legal translations authorized by the Swedish Government to U.S. English. One of her best memories of her time as a Senior Tutor at Eliot House was regularly dining in the Senior Common Room while discussing the Arts with Leonard Bernstein and David Rockefeller, Jr.

Gwen served on the Board from 2008- 2010 and was appointed Chief Club Editor in 2010.

Mathias Pedersen – Auditor

Mathis is a PMD '05 graduate of Harvard Business School.

Carl Svernlöv – Nominating Committee

Carl is an LLM '90 graduate of Harvard Law School.

Petter Östlund - Nominating Committee

Petter holds an MBA from HBS and graduated in 1999 (Section E). Currently he is VP Products at mobile commerce company Payair. The best memories from HBS is the fantastic campus and unique case method. At HBS you truly learn fact based decision making and how to learn & leverage from others in study groups. In addition we had great memories (and parties) sharing a town house with two HBS buddies at Ellery Street Nr. 10 in Cambridge.

Tobias Fridman

Tobias studied the General Management Program (GMP 15) at HBS during 2013. He has for the past 15 years worked as a lawyer at Delphi & Co and as in-house counsel at Accenture/Verizon. After returning from Harvard he focuses on product development within “legal services” at the multi-service company Moretime. Moretime is a supplier of shared services within finance, salary administration, bookkeeping, management and law, which will be listed in 2014. He is married to Anna and they have three sons.

Madhuri Gogineni

Madhuri is a 1993 graduate of Harvard College who went on to study medicine at New York University and later do a residency in internal medicine at Stanford University. She currently lives in Stockholm and practices medicine at Karolinska University Hospital. She has been active in the club since moving to Sweden in 2011 and is now, with the support of Harvard College admissions, spearheading an active effort to recruit young Swedish students to study at Harvard College. She is also responsible for coordinating alumni interviews for college admissions.

Jens Jacob Fredriksson

Jens Jacob is a Medical Doctor and currently a Ph.D. candidate at the Medical Management Centre, Karolinska Institutet, where he primarily studies innovative management practices in health care. He spent his time at Harvard as a Visiting Exchange Student in Health Care Management during 2009.

Anders Moberg

Anders holds an LL.M. from HLS (class of 2004). After having spent five years as a lawyer in NYC, Anders moved back to Sweden in 2011, and he is now an attorney with the law firm Lindahl in Stockholm. Anders is married to Sara and has two kids – Oliver and Leona.
